

DIYA KHURANA

Growth Coach | Business Coach
Corporate Trainer | Leadership Coach

Diya Khurana is the founder and chief coach at Diya Khurana Coaching and Training, a company established 15 years ago with a core purpose of empowering individuals and businesses one at a time. With an MBA degree specializing in Human Resources, Diya has centered her 18+ years of work experience around people, starting from her role as an HR Manager at Wockhardt Hospitals to her journey as a Corporate Trainer to a Business Coach.

At Diya Khurana Coaching and Training, Diya curates high-impact, customized, and comprehensive coaching and training modules aimed at empowering individuals and teams. With nearly two decades of leadership coaching and corporate training experience, Diya has served as the Senior Director, Training, at Corporate Connections, and as a Master Trainer at Image Consulting Business Institute. Her expertise extends via associations across esteemed organizations such as ICAI (Institute of Chartered Accountants, India) and NAIR (National Academy of Indian Railways) and she has worked extensively with corporates like Bombardier, Apollo Tyres, Sunpharma, L&T, Schott Glass, Netafim, and more across her corporate training and coaching career.

Diya's passion for empowering entrepreneurs and her adeptness at working with leadership teams led her to become a certified and licensed business growth coach with BloomGrowth. Currently, Diya focuses on helping entrepreneurial leadership teams meet their goals, offering a helping hand in nurturing organizational health and leadership skills.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Diya is a wife and mother, blessed with two beautiful children. She resides with her family in Baorda, Gujarat.
