

Mercy Solomon

Growth Coach | Business Coach
Clifton Strength Coach | Purpose Coach

With over 25 years of experience in industry associations, Mercy Solomon's career has centered around designing and executing industry-specific conferences, seminars, training, leading trade missions to foster trade and economic cooperation and empowering young Indians to contribute to the nation's development.

Certified as a Business Growth Coach with Bloom's Growth System, she guides business owners and leadership teams to enhance efficiency and effectiveness, focusing on strategic business improvement.

Her extensive experience includes working with entrepreneurs through a confidential peer sharing program. Mercy is also the co-founder of Kereses Consulting India Pvt Ltd, a boutique recruitment and training firm dedicated to assisting mid-size companies in finding the right talent.

Driven by a passion for helping people find their life's purpose, she is certified as a life and executive coach. Additionally, as a Gallup Certified Strengths Coach, Mercy aids individuals in leveraging their strengths for improved quality of life both personally and professionally.

Married with two daughters, she resides with her family in Chennai.